- (1) that there is a reasonable probability that Plaintiff is entitled to possession, use and disposition of the property pending final adjudication of the parties' claims;
- (2) that this is an appropriate action for issuance of a writ of possession; and
- (3) that no bond shall be required for the issuance of the writ of possession since there is reasonable cause to believe that Plaintiff is a secured party pursuant to NRS Chapter 104 and the Court otherwise fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff should have the right to immediate possession of the following collateral described in Exhibit A attached hereto, and that Defendants be ordered to deliver possession of said collateral to Plaintiff forthwith:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a writ of possession be issued and the United States Marshal Service shall take into custody the above-described property possessed by Defendants wherever said property may be located in the County of Clark, State of Nevada; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States Marshal Service shall immediately deliver possession of said property to Plaintiff or its representative.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
